MAYOR TO FIGHT TO THE FINISH tion, together with any statements, maps, etc., that you have to present, and the same will be duly considered."

Will Seek to Prove That Mr. Mc-Carthy Coluded.

HIS MEANING OF WHITEWASHING

Statement, Made as a Parting Shot, Suggested by Committeeman Gordon's kemark-lacidents of suesday Night Was Live lopic Yesterday.

There was comparative calm at the City Pell yesterday after the storm of the night pefore.

Everbody was discussing the exciting incidents in connection with the investigation of the Epps case.

Mayor Taylor, who two or three times called Auditor Warren and special accountant ugly names, and who in turn, was charged by each of them with mak-ing false statements, was early at his office. He had cooled off, and greeted his friends with his characteristically cordial handshake. He seems to be at peace with all the world. Auditor Warren and Mr. McCarthy were promptly at their offices. Those who gamered about the lobby expecting to witness personal encounters went away disappointed.

The temperature at the Ci., anall was several degrees lower than it was the might before. The atmosphere had cooled off wonderfully. AS TO WHITEWASHING.

The Mayor was generally critic.sed for his parting remark to the committee, to the effect that "you all may whitewash" it if you choose

When asked what he meant by this remark the Mayor said: "The expression was suggested by Alderman Gordon's statement that he saw nothing wrong in Mr. Warren's or Mr. McCarthy's conduct

Mayor Taylor states that he has no retractions to make of anything he told the committee-no apologies to make to any one. He stands by his declarations, any one. He stands by his declarations, and apparently is determined to "Eght it out to a finish." "I have done," said he, "what I conceived to be my duty the Mayor of the city, and would do the same thing over again if it were necessary."

essary," he remarked.

Mr. Warres and Mr. McCarthy had nothing to add to their testimony before the committee. Their friends believe the charges that hey aided or abetted Epps in escaping to be absurd.

THE MAYOR'S CONTENTION.

The Mayor said he would be on hand at the meeting Friday night and would be prepared to prove by Captain Alex. Tomlinson and others that Mr. Carlton McCarthy was in the Mayor's reception-room the day after Mr. Epps left town. Mr. McCarthy denies this and declares that he did not see Mayor Taylor until Thursday of that week, when he went to him at the request of his honor. "It is just as I stated last night." the

"Mr. McCarthy came in on Tuesday with a paper and pencil in hand and started to tell me how easily There were visitors in my private office and I asked the Accountant to retire to the reception-room. I went in there and talked with him. It was during that conversation he told me he had stated to Epps that he would stand by him, right or wrong. Now he denies this. Captain Tomlinson remembers that opened the door, and, seeing Mr. Mc-Carthy and myself talking, retired. There no doubt as to this, yet Mr. Carthy declares he was not there at that MR. M'CARTHY'S SIDE.

Mr. McCarthy expects to prove by Judge Witt that the very day after this alleged conversation he denied that it had taken place or that he had been to the Mayor's office on the day in question. Mr. McCarthy insists that the Mayor has go his dates fearfully mixed and has been doing a lot of dreaming.

Mayor was asked what effect his course ir this matter would have upon his political aspirations, and replied that he did not know. "It may be," he added, "that what I have done and said will, make me enemics. If so, I cannot help it I am sworn to do my duty, and I shall always do it, no matter what the consequences may be. I have been told, however, by some thoughtful and conservative people, men who belong to no ring, "that they approve my course. I have, at least, the consolation of knowing that I did what I believed to be my duty to all the people of Richmond, whose servant I am and to whom I am sworn to do my duty."

He said it changed the original report so as to place the whole question of expenditure of revenue in the power of the Governor and the General Assembly. Mr. Turnbull said he should oppose the substitute because it gave the Board the twice as much money as was necessary, and because they could not get that, they abandoned the contest. CALLED IT PREMATURE.

Dr. Dunaway said he considers the whole matter and the discussion of it premature. The Legislature will meet next month. It was best to wait and see if it failed to make provision for the enlargement of the penitentiary. Then would be time to act. He did not think the Legislature would fail to do so. The convention would evidently be in session several months yet. To adopt these sections now would be a reflection on that body. If the whole matter was passed by there might be no necessity of adopting any such provision, besides an act of the Legislature would go into effect immediately. If placed in the Constitution it might be until 1923 before it was adopted or its recommendations made effective. (Laughter.) Mr. Walker offered a substitute, leaving the whole matter with the Legislature, making improvements mandatory. Mr. James W. Gordon offered an amendment, requiring the Legislature to ex-pend not exceeding a certain sum in making the necessary improvements. Mr. Meredith said there was every rea-son why the convention should meet this issue of whether the penitentiary should be properly taken care of. The committee had given the matter the most careful consideration and their report should be adopted as amended by Mr. James W. Gordon, limiting the amount to be expended to $250,000

AMENDMENT LOST.

The amendment substituting General Assembly for Governor, offered by Mr. Turnbull, was rejected. Mr. James W. Gordon's amendment was to add to the substitute, offered by the committee, the words "provided the Gen-eral Assembly shall not authorize the expenditure of more than $250,000 by the Board of Directors."

After further discussion by 1-2. Gordon in favor of his amendment and Messrs. R. Walton Moore and Harding Walker in opposit on, Chairman Avers stated that the sole obligation of the committee had been to rescue the convicts from what one of the surgeons called a living death.
The principle announced by the committee was that the profits of the convicts should be devoted first to alienating present conditions and provide for them humane ac-commodations. He read a table of the profits made out of the labor of the convicts in the past six years, and contended that the surplus earnings should be first applied to furnishing sufficient cell room and air space for the convicts. said that was the principle involved in the recommendations and it was no re-flection on the Legislature to embody it in the Constitution.

The Gordon amendment was rejected-

The vote was then taken on the substitute offered by the committee, and it was adopted—yeas, D; noes, 23.

Mr. Walker then offered his amendment, requiring the coming Legislature to make such an appropriation as may be ecessary for the enlargement of the State prison.

A STRONG SPEECH.

Mr. R. Walton Moore advocated the Walker amendment. He said it would accomplish the purpose of the committee without confining the Legislature to the expenditure of the recepts of the pententiary. As recommended by the committee, there might become an accumu-lation of revenues of the p nitentiary over which the Legislature had no con trol. He had gone as far as any one in placing certa n restrictions upon the Leg-islature, but he did not believe in taking from the Legislature the complete To deny this power was going a bow-shot beyond what had ever been att mpt-ed or contemplated by Constitution makers. He sad he was not at a., in sympathy with the argument of some who convention should adopt nothing new because it was special legislation. Caairman Ayers explained that unde the provision of the report there could be no accumulation of revenues. The amendment was adopted-yeas, 32

STRICKEN OUT Mr. Walker announced that in conse equence of the adoption of his amend ment to section 3, section 4 would have to be stricken out, and this was done. It provided for and it authorized the Board of D rectors to borrow net exceeding 520, for the enlargement and 'mprovement of the prison.

Judge Harrson opposed the recommendations of the com-mittee. He said he had heard no complaint of the present system, and had heard of no abuse under it. He asked for an explanation of the enange.

nough a native of Amsterdam. Holland, Eduard Zeldenrust has lived land, Eduard Zeitenrust has lived for years in Paris. There, each spring, he gives one or more recitals. Last year hundreds of strangers were in the city for the exposition, and had an oppor-tunity of hearing Herr Zeidenrust for the first time. Here is what the Paris cor-respondent to the Neues Pester Journal had to say of the occasion: "The great Dutch planist, Zeldenrust, charmed hundreds of the visitors to the exposition and the leaders of Tout Paris at the Figure's 5 o'clock. As in London, so in Paris he has celebrated triumph after triumph with his art. The success his concerts here is almost unexampled. He plays Beethoven, Chopin Mendeissohn and Liszt with equal mastery, and raises the audience to paroxysms.
